STREET ADDRESS:

75 W. Huron Street, Buffalo NY

PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

McGuire Development spearheaded the Buffalo School of Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management. Located in the former 5 story C.W. Miller Livery building on W. Huron Street, the concept involved renovation of the historic Miller Livery building, a National Register of Historic Places. Designed for 450 students, the programing includes a full academic High School plus working commercial training kitchens, a full restaurant, retail shop, and full gymnasium addition built over the parking area.

Our team delivered the new Buffalo School of Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management on time and under budget. The addition and expansion of educational programs are a major asset to the Downtown Buffalo community, and surrounding neighborhoods.

SCOPE OF SERVICES, DESIGN FEATURES

The creative architecture of the “hovering” gymnasium, created an opportunity to maintain parking spaces in the lot adjacent to the building, this design was introduced and created by Kideney Architects, and preserves the integrity of the historic building while offering parking availability to BPS.
