

McGuire

Real Estate Services

OUR OFFER:

An impressive track record of representation on both sides of the deal, our team at McGuire Real Estate Services has a thorough understanding of what drives both sides of a real estate transaction. With experience in multiple asset classes and support from a parent company based in real estate development, our team offers a full spectrum of CRE services.

Philosophy

Fee

After building our Buffalo based organization McGuire Development Company over the last 16 years, our team brought their collaborative team efforts and signature transparent process to the Southeast Florida marketplace. The McGuire Family have been investors and active developers in Florida since the mid-nineties, and property owners since the mid-seventies. We're committed to building relationships and bringing opportunity to our expansive client base.

The McGuire team's wealth of market knowledge, local and national contacts, insight analysis of markets, and strategic marketing has been producing collaborative decision making with our clients for over 16 years. The McGuire Family of Companies operates within a transparency service model, ensuring client advocacy and superior customer service to meet present and future real estate needs.
